

Tax Return Helper 2006

Supplied by Marshall Roche

Please use this Tax Return Helper as a checklist of the information we need to prepare your tax return and as a reminder of the dates below. If you have already supplied the information to us, thank you - please use this checklist to ensure that nothing has been missed. All information supplied to us will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Please note - we cannot deal with all tax returns if they all come in at the last minute - leaving it the last minute risks a penalty.

		Penalty
Late return -	Submitted after 31 January 2007	£100
	Submitted after 31 July 2007	£200
Late tax payment -	Paid after 28 February 2007	5% of the tax
	Paid after 31 August 2007	10% of the tax

If you had a new source of income during 2005/06, not taxed at source, the Inland Revenue must be told by 5 October 2006.

If you are employed and may have underpaid tax during the year, you can have tax payments of up to £2,000 collected by adjusting your tax code, so long as the tax return is with the Inland Revenue by 30 September 2006.

Aim to let us have all the necessary details before you go on holiday, so you can relax in the knowledge that it's all being taken care of. If in any doubt about what we need, please contact us.
