

Tax Return Helper 2005

Supplied by Marshall Roche

This Tax Return Helper will help you to gather the information needed and avoid a penalty for omitting essential detail from your return. To help us to prepare your tax return on your behalf, please forward the completed check-list to us, together with the information and paperwork referred to in the relevant sections. All information will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Please note - we cannot deal with all tax returns if they all come in at the last minute - leaving it the last minute risks a penalty.

		Penalty
Late return -	Submitted after 31 January 2006	£100
	Submitted after 31 July 2006	£200
Late tax payment -	Paid after 28 February 2006	5% of the tax
	Paid after 31 August 2006	10% of the tax

If you had a new source of income during 2004/05, not taxed at source, the Inland Revenue must be told by 5 October 2005.

If you are employed and may have underpaid tax during the year, you can have tax payments of up to £2,000 collected by adjusting your tax code, so long as the tax return is with the Inland Revenue by 30 September 2005.

Aim to let us have all the necessary details before you go on holiday, so you can relax in the knowledge that it's all being taken care of. If in any doubt about what we need, please contact us.
